BURNT STORE GOLF & ACTIVITY CENTER

The Burnt Store Marina Golf Course & Community Center will be closing on May 28, 2008. A group of your neighbors are acting to form a 501c, Not-for-Profit Entity for the purpose of assuming the existing golf course lease from Realmark. A detailed presentation explaining membership benefits, fee requirements and a discussion of declining real estate values is planned by Bob Nuckels, Bob Wood and Jim Brown for 6:00 p.m. on Tuesday April 8, 2008. The presentation will be held on the golf club patio, behind the restaurant located at 24315 Vincent Avenue.

The NEW Burnt Store Golf & Activity Center (BSG & AC) has the potential to provide a unique environment of golfing experiences and a wide range of social and instructional activities at an affordable price for everyone. Your friends are welcome at this informational meeting. Your interest and support is essential to the continuation of the Burnt Store lifestyle.

In short, the benefits of joining the BSG & AC include a 15% discount off all club charges including golf fees, restaurant prices and pro shop merchandise. Many more exciting advantages are:

- *Seven (7) day preferences for golf tee times.
- *Reciprocity with other Golf & Social Clubs
- *Ability to make reservations for lunch or other activities
- *Use of the Post Office onsite
- *Access to the Activity Center activities including special functions
- *Inclusion in member directory and newsletters
- *Other member affinity programs as they come available
