(Issued 01/28/2008)

REVISED WATERING / IRRIGATION SCHEDULE

BSLPOA members are reminded the Charlotte County Revised Watering/Irrigation Schedule goes into effect on Friday, February 1, 2008. The revised schedule still limits lawn and landscape irrigation to once per week, however, the days of the week when watering is permitted have been changed. The revised schedule now spreads the highest demand over five days - Monday through Friday - with no irrigation allowed on weekends. For our out of the area homeowners, please make arrangements to have the timer changed on your irrigation system.

Another feature of the revised schedule involves enforcement. Beginning on March 1, 2008 customers watering on the wrong day or time may be subject to unauthorized water use charges, up to $500 for repeat offenses, which will appear on the monthly Utilities bill. The Sheriff's Office will continue to enforce watering restrictions.

Review the following list to determine the correct day, according to house number, you are permitted to water. Remember watering is only permitted after 6 p.m. and before 8 a.m. Finally, the revised schedule applies to all sources including private wells or community lakes.
